

Or SEO articles how to write SEO text for a blog.

Hello to you as always Alexander Demenev the author of the blog demeneff.ru today in this post we will understand the concept of SEO text and what is SEO optimization of the article. Before becoming a blogger, I often browsed other people's blogs. Tried to understand all the intricacies of seo articles really didn't want to step on a rake and make a lot of mistakes to get my SEO texts were written correctly and liked not only the visitors but also the search engines. After all that is why they are written and published on the blog. Didn't want me to sit in the last rows in the search results. I began to look for and read any information which could tell me about writing seo articles. Me as a newcomer at that time it was very difficult to determine the choice of the proper optimization of text. Alone on the forums of this information a huge amount. What do you think I found tons of information tips and guidelines for optimization in the article. It all went uphill and attendance of my blog exceeded 10,000 unique visitors a day due to the fact that I did the right writing SEO articles. Kidding of course, all this was not had just the opposite effect. Applying for SEO texts all the optimizations that I have found on the Internet I haven't been doing the right article too overoptimize in the end, had all sorts of filters and other gifts from search engines. But over time I figured that out and started to try only those methods that are actually operated my SEO texts began to emerge in the top even without a single purchase links. Plus I did a great job on the blog through which could very well speed up wordpress. Now with some knowledge I am willing to share them with you. I hope that these methods will help you rise in search engines and anticipated traffic will increase day by day. Well let's proceed with the consideration of seo articles and their proper optimization. The first step in writing the article of course need to come up with a topic for a future post about what you want to write. Then spend brainstorming come up with just the keywords which will promote future post. I this post did all these steps and here are the keywords I could think well about thirty seconds not more That is roughly the list of keys to advance the article you should be prepared. The next step I need to check these keys on the incidence and to analyse whether to take this request or it is empty. Very often it happens that the key when testing can show the number of simple queries in a few thousand and when checking for the exact match would be 0 to sharpen an article under such a request anyway what do
